

Victorian Women Lawyers' Women Lawyers in Government Committee ('WiG')

Invites you to take part in a simple and straightforward conversation to discuss an issue that is far from simple and straightforward: career challenges faced by women lawyers in government

Life as a Government Lawyer: A conversation with Vanessa Twigg

A light lunch will be provided at the seminar from 12:30pm

Places are limited. Book now to avoid disappointment.

Date: Wednesday 6 April 2011

Time: Seminar from 1:00pm - 2:00pm

Location: Department of Transport Corporate Centre
Level 5, 121 Exhibition Street

RSVP and Questions: VWLregister@liv.asn.au

By: Friday 25 March 2011

Guests are invited to suggest questions for Vanessa please e-mail them to the above address

Your speaker: Vanessa Twigg

Assistant Director, Police Integrity, Strategic Projects, Education and Legal Services

Ms Vanessa Twigg commenced with the Office of Police Integrity in December 2004 as Senior Lawyer. In May 2010, Ms Twigg was promoted to the position of Assistant Director, Legal and Compliance. Ms Twigg has spent 25 years in law enforcement and government regulatory agencies, including the National Crime Authority, the Australian Securities and Investments

Commission, the Royal Commission into the Building and Construction Industry, the Building Industry Taskforce and OPI. She commenced her career as a criminal intelligence analyst, before being admitted to practice as a lawyer in 1995.

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORT

Victorian Government
Solicitor's Office

